

January 6, 2021 - Electoral College Votes for Presidential Election

Congress completed their count of electoral college votes early Thursday morning, January 7, 2021 affirming President-elect Joe Biden's win. There are 147 members of the United States Congress (below) who voted to challenge President-elect Joe Biden's electoral victory by objecting to the results of the Pennsylvania election and/or the Arizona election to support President Donald Trump's false claim of a 'stolen 2020 presidential election,' and even after the president directed his supporters to assault the Congress on Wednesday, January 6, 2021.
